Mr. Adam J. Strohm, Librarian. of Trenton Free Public Library

Dear Sir:

Your favor of February fifth just received. I am very greatly obliged to you for the trouble you have taken to secure the books recommended. You are quite right in regard to Kitchin. It was his "History of France" that I suggested. With this I inclose card, as suggested with correct title, but am not sure whether the author's initials are H. M. or or not. I am familiar with H. Morse Stephens' ^{LS} The French Revolution and his Orators of the Revolution, and I imagine that he is the author of the work on the card but cannot remember.

May I take this opportunity of expressing my very great appreciation of the work being done by you, and your corps of assistants?
I cannot express in words how ^{much} the library has increased, the value of the work I am trying to do, and added to the material aid is the object lesson daily shown in courtesy and sympathetic assistance to young people who are very crude and after trying. I am constantly hearing students' enthuse over the courteous and helpful treatment they receive. It is certainly most gratifying to have the library so efficiently managed and we are anxious to show our appreciation of the work.

Respectfully yours,
Sarah A. Dyres
Dept of History State Normal.
