

Thencanic Society,
Trenton N. J.

Oct. 23, '96.

Critic's Report.

The meeting of last Friday was a very good one, considering it as a whole.

Mr. Jenkins' oration short but — not sweet. The Critic is sure that if our honored teacher, Miss Bosworth heard the oration, she would have certainly given him • (10).

The debate which Mr. Buckman of Langhorne put up, was undoubtedly a very great credit to him (only).

It is to be hoped that our Secretary is entirely free from his cold caused by the heavy (draft.)

Our esteemed Pres. is a little too previous to be interrogated when a over.

Critic's Report

dark cloud enters the meeting to speak ~~to speak to his~~ Well Mr. Murphy.

Mr. Banford's address was truly a good one, and if it was duplicated
once in a while by different ex-members of the Society, I am sure the Society
would profit by it.

The Society owes Mr. (Olive-oil) Kemp
great thanks for his kind assistance
in helping our Secretary read the Constitution but in his absence, may I suggest that the "Boy Orator" (not Mr. Jenkins)
but our mascot will be an excellent
one to give such assistance.

He noted the absence of our fellow member ^{Mr. Camp} in the last meeting. I hope it was not caused by natural gas, of which is escaping
from Nebraska.

The meeting was a great improvement over the
one prior to it.

Sincerely

J. A. Schulz.
Critic.
