

Christie—Ivins.

Miss Jennie B. Ivins of No. 281 Spring street and John L. Christie of No. 414 Lambert street were married last Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Walter A. Brooks amid a profusion of potted plants and cut flowers and white orange blossoms.

The bride was charmingly attired in white French chiffon and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The maid of honor, Miss Agnes Romain, was gowned in French muslin and carried pink roses. William Christie, brother of the groom, was best man. The parlors were prettily decorated. Prof. Charles W. Pette played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Ivins, and Mr. Christie is shipping clerk at the Cook Pottery. Both are well and favorably known. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony on a wedding tour, successfully eluding the wedding guests by riding away in an automobile after a coach had been appropriately placarded and trimmed for their especial benefit.

Miss Jennie B. Ivins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Ivins, of 281 Spring street, and John L. Christie of 414 Lamberton street, were married yesterday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of the bride's parents.

The ceremony was performed in the parlors which were decorated with palms, ferns, cut flowers and orange blossoms. The Rev. Dr. Walter A. Brooks officiated.

The bride wore white French chiffon and carried bride's roses. Miss Agnes Romaine, the maid of honor, wore French muslin and carried pink roses. William Christie, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. The wedding music was by Charles W. Pette.

Mr. Christie is shipping clerk at the Cook pottery. He is prominently identified with local Y. M. C. A. work, and is an athlete of repute.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Christie started for the depot in a coach. They were followed by the bridal party and a number of friends who had in mind the usual wedding fun. Mr. and Mrs. Christie escaped their pursuers by changing the method of road transportation from coach to automobile. They went to Trenton Junction in the machine and their train pulled out before the merrymakers got there.

The guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Ivins, Mr. and Mrs. John Christie, Miss Susanne Jane Lawton, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson, Miss Ida Fisher, Miss Edna Smith, Miss Bessie Taylor, Miss Cora Lee, Miss Elva Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Minor H. Ivins, Frank Fisher, Mr. Comley, Norris Caulkett, of New York; Fred Lutes, Dr. Archibald E. Boice, Miss Abbie Ivins, Miss Anna Stokes, Miss Jeanette E. Wright, Miss Anna Beers, Miss Jennie Bennett, C. C. Ivins, Mr. and Mrs. Fergusson, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mackensie, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Schulte, Miss Hattie Crisp, Milton Lawson, Miss Alice Ivins.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie will live in Trenton.
