

Advertisement
June 27

POPULAR COUPLE MARRIED YESTERDAY

T. Raymond Doyle Takes Miss Vogts For Bride at First M. E. Parsonage—Long Tour.

A very pretty and quiet little wedding took place at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, 325 Market street, yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, when Miss Florence Vogts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Vogts, of 24 Commerce street, and T. Raymond Doyle, of 491 Chambers street, were married. Rev. Dr. James L. Gardiner, pastor of the First Church, officiated.

The bridesmaid was Miss Pearl Yates, a close friend of the bride, and Nathan Vogts, her brother, was best man.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a lace robe, over silk. She wore a hat of lace trimmed with willow plumes. Miss Yates was attired in a peach-colored messaline, trimmed with real lace, wearing a leghorn hat with plumes.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a tour through the New England States. Mrs. Doyle's going-away gown was of hand-embroidered pongee, with trimmings of hand-made Cluny lace. Her hat and gloves matched.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle are members of the First M. E. Church choir and Mr. Doyle is secretary of the Sunday-school connected with the church. He holds a responsible position with the Mott Iron Sompany.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome gifts, including cut glass, silverware, real rugs and articles of furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle will be at home after July 15, at 491 Chambers street.
