

TRENTON STATE

Activities

President of Chapter

Mrs. J. E. Haskell

Who has been elected presi-

the

News

Resent position

blem, because she's a husband. have a husband to know how lucky they thoughtfully. Adele Goldstein of said that sometimes stand why husbands says, with prices what men don't always where the money s. Goldstein, with a also appears to chief complaint of e days of Methuse- since then, for that Side husband le thing up. my wife came regain-hunting ex- ghed. "She had such a state of take her out to ow to get some $11.25. We men

Bride

Discuss Plans For Camp Opening Aug. 5

Staff members of Camp Lenape, the Camp Fire Girls' Summer project, met last week to complete program plans for the 1951 season. Pictured above from left to right are: Seated, Miss Sharane Heberling, a unit counselor; Mrs. J. E. Haskell, chairman of the camp committee; Miss Helen Van Luppen, unit counselor; and Mrs. Herbert Alger, music director; standing, Mrs. Neil Waugh, nurse; Mrs. Harold Sprout, director of the pioneer unit; Miss Anne Davey, camp director; Miss Betty Baer, nature counselor; and Mrs. James R. Adams, waterfront director.

Absent when the picture was taken were Miss Peggy Hutchinson, director of the counselor-in-training unit; Mrs. John Klein, handcraft director; Miss Vernie Bagley, dramatics director; and Mrs. Selma Roth, Miss Edna Bastian and Miss Jean E. Mays, unit counselors.

Camp Lenape is situated at Mount Misery, a section of pine woods near Pemberton, and facilities include a natural lake of cedar water. This year the season will run from August 5 to August 18.

Campers are divided into five units. Girls from seven to nine are in the Blue Bird Unit, those from ten to fourteen are part of the Camp Fire Girl Unit, and girls fifteen through seventeen years of age belong to the Horizon Club Unit. A Pioneer Unit has been planned for fourteen, fifteen and sixteen-year-old campers who are especially interested in out-of-doors living. If girls who are sixteen or seventeen years old want to become camp counselors, they join the counselor-in-training unit for a two-year course that combines work in assisting the craft directors and lecture courses given by Miss Hutchinson.

A few reservations for each week are still available. Full information may be obtained by calling the Camp Fire Girl Office, 503 Broad Street Bank Building, at 2-0927.

Vacation Time Plays Havoc With Father

By Dorothy Roe
AP Women's Editor

It's vacation time, and Father's underfoot again.

Whether at resort hotel, fishing camp or in his own back yard, the dear old boy is likely at some time during that two-weeks-with-pay find time hanging heavy on hands.

That is the time for Mom the kids to take cover.

Not, you understand, that Father isn't a fine fellow, beloved. Not that he isn't the soul rum all the other 50 weeks of the year.

But the sudden release from office routine, the feeling of being free as a bird with nothing to do for two whole weeks is likely to produce strange and harrowing results.

After he has fished for five or six straight and brought home one small bass . . .

After he's played 18 holes of golf every day for a week and still has time to spare . . .

After he's caught up with his gardening and the odd work around the house . . .

That's about the time when Father feels the urge to howl.

The symptoms are easy to recognize.

He'll start by complaining about his breakfast coffee, refusing to eat his bacon and eggs and shaving himself while shaving.

After leaving a morass of towels on the bathroom floor, he will find that all his shirts and slacks have missing buttons or frayed collars, and will make appropriate comment.

After searching diligently through his rack of 100-odd shirts, he'll announce that none of them are fit to wear, and why can't you get some cleaning done around here.

Finally, to everyone's relief, he will stamp out, slamming all doors behind him.

Whether nightfall finds him en-

Plucked-Chicken Look

Prospective Bride