

CLASS RECEPTION

---

A Delightful Social Function Held at the State Schools.

---

THE PROGRAM OF EXERCISES

---

The Gymnasium a Bower of Floral and Girlish Loveliness During Its Rendition in Honor of the Approaching Commencement.

---

The class of February, 1901, gave a reception to the June class last evening in the gymnasium of the State Schools. Feb 15, 1900

The room was beautifully decorated in the colors of the two classes with palms and school and class flags. Estoons of white and crimson were draped from the ceiling to the balcony.

The program of the evening consisted of class day exercises arranged for the Senior Two's by the Senior One's,
"out of the benevolence of their hearts," as the president said in her address.

After the president's address the history of the June class was read by one of the members of the February class, who had found some stray leaves from one of the record books, which had belonged formerly to the Senior Two's.

A class poem was then recited by June class having been revealed to certain of the Senior One's, it was then read by Miss Woodward.

The address to the undergraduates, as it should be according to Senior One's opinion, was then given.

The program closed with a congratulatory address in which the undergraduates commended the graduates on their high standing and large numbers. Refreshments were served by Hill, and the rest of the evening was spent in social intercourse and good fellowship.